Profile

I'm an Frontend developer with experience in React, Next.js, React Native, TypeScript, Tailwind, MaterialUI, Supabase for backend and other modern technologies.

I have commercial experience with Next.js and React Native. I developed a dispute page for the website, communicating with the backend developer, admin panel, and mobile applications.

I had an interesting experience with React Native, where I developed a mobile app that scans photos using AI and returns a specific response. Generating meal plans using AI that selects dishes based on your goals. Optimizing the community page and much more.
